Our Adjudicator

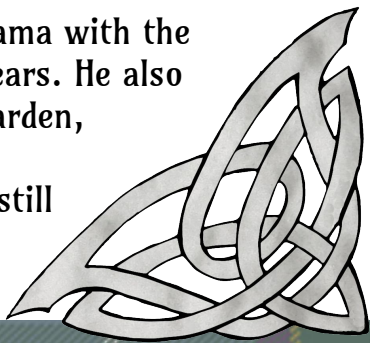

Alan Haslett, ADA GoDA

Involved with theatre for almost fifty years, Alan has a wealth of experience as an actor, singer, director and adjudicator. He is a member of The Association of Drama Adjudicators, Ireland and the Guild of Drama Adjudicators, UK, and has adjudicated the length and breadth of England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland.

With Londonderry Amateur Operatic Society he has played leading roles in every show from Camille in 'Merry Widow' (1975) to Fagin in 'Oliver' (2001).

Alan has directed award-winning musicals and plays with LAOS, Strabane Musical Society, Bangor Operatic Society, the Ulster Operatic Company, St. Patrick's Hall Theatre Group - Strabane, City of Derry Drama Club, Two Bridges Theatre Group and Lifford Players to name but a few.

Alan was an advisory officer for music & drama with the Western Education & Library Board for 30 years. He also studied at The Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, applying his studies to the 'Write An Opera' project in primary schools with which he is still involved.
